NOT TO FIGURE AS CANDIDATE

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 19.—The name of Associate Justice Charles Hughes of the supreme court, as a presidential candidate is not expected to appear on the Nebraska primary ballot as has been requested by a petition filed by a number of his Nebraska supporters. Secretary of State Wood today indicated that he would grant the request of Mr. Hughes and his name be left off. No decision will be made officially until Mr. Hughes' request, which is coming by mail, is received.

"I am waiting for Mr. Hughes' message," said Secretary Wood today, "and my decision will be announced immediately upon its receipt as I have made up my mind. The Nebraska law is silent upon the question raised in this case, where the proposed candidate objects to the use of his name. But my decision will stand until those who object have a court of law pass upon it."

SHE WAS A MERE SKELETON

This Lady Suffered From Severe Pain in Left Side, Was Very Weak, and Confined to Bed For Month at a Time.

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Mrs. Dora Pinderburg, of this city, says: "When I was 14 years old I was very poorly, and was told that my case was very bad, and that it might go into consumption, as I had an awful cough. The medicine I took did not do me much good, and I only spent my money for nothing as I got no relief, but when I commenced taking Cardui, I began improving."

Before taking Cardui I was a mere skeleton, and was very weak and was confined to my bed at times, sometimes as long as a month at a time. I was unable to go to school regularly for two years on account of my bad health. I had cramping every month, and a severe pain in my left side.

My mother told me of Cardui, and after taking one bottle I was greatly relieved of the pains. I have continued taking it until I feel like a different woman, and I cannot praise Cardui enough. I am now gaining in weight, and all my friends that see me speak of how much better I look in the last month, and I tell them I am taking Cardui. I highly recommend it to all suffering women."

Try taking Cardui for your troubles. Get a bottle today. You won't regret giving it a trial. Your druggist sells it.

VILLA ISSUES DECLARATION OF PRESIDENT

Says Mexico Is Enslaved by "Professor of Philosophy" and People Never Will Submit to Dictation.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Mexico City, Nov. 19.—The battle for possession of Hermosillo, capital of Sonora, has been in progress since late yesterday, according to advices received at Nogales, Sonora, opposite here by Villa officials. It was claimed that General Obregon, the Carranza leader, was repulsed in an engagement near Cananea.

Carlos Randall, acting governor of Sonora, declared today at his headquarters in Mexican Nogales that dispatches received by him today indicated that General Obregon had been completely routed in the fighting north of Cananea. Three hundred Carranza men were left on the battlefield, according to these reports.

Villa officials were reported here to have confiscated a consignment of copper sold to be valued at approximately $500,000, which arrived at Nogales, Sonora, today from the mines of the Carranza Consolidated Copper Company.

One elderly woman was shot by soldiers at Nogales, Sonora, during a celebration last night during which shouts of "Viva Carranza" were said to have been made by the soldiers. No one was arrested by the Villa authorities.

Issues Proclamation.
A long proclamation in which General Villa denounced General Carranza and the United States government, was issued by Governor Randall today.

The proclamation, which Randall attributed to Villa, was published and posted in Nogales, Sonora. It refers to President Wilson as an "evangelical professor of philosophy," and declares Mexico can not be pacified by Carranza because the people will not accept a government forced upon them by the United States.

The proclamation is addressed to "My compatriots and the people of the United States," and reads in part:

"The tyranny of the northern republic places me in a position in which it is necessary to make known the facts."

"We went to the Washington peace conference in good faith and with the hope of terminating the war and finding an honorable and lasting peace."

"The Mexican people can not be consolidated by the Carranza government because they will not accept a government forced upon them by Woodrow Wilson."

"Carranza practically delivered the entire republic into the hands of the Yankees."

"I declare I have much to be thankful to Mr. Wilson for, because he relieved me of the obligation of giving guarantees to foreigners especially those who were once citizens but now are vassals of a professor of philosophy, who has trampled the independence of a free people and violated the sovereignty of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona by letting their soil be crossed by Carranza troops."

FOOD SITUATION IN MEXICO IMPROVING

Washington, Nov. 19.—State department advices today announcing the reopening of the American consulate at Torreon said that while the food situation at Torreon was improved, fuel and railway equipment were very scarce and establishment of train service to Durango probably will be delayed.

Mexico City dispatches reported food conditions improved, but railroad traffic was said to be unsatisfactory, though incoming mail was arriving promptly.

A mail report from San Luis Potosi, dated a week ago, stated that the de facto government "has a large force of troops in the eastern part of the state, probably enough to maintain their authority."

At the Villa, soldiers were said to have surrounded the remainder of the Villa force, under Benjamin Aguirre, accompanied by Lazaro Chazaro, having departed for the north.

VILLA'S CANANEA FORCE TRAPPED BY OBREGON

Douglas, Ark., Nov. 19.—Carranza official reports tonight are that General Obregon's Villa force is hemmed in at Cananea and that communication with Nogales of General Villa's main army, reported at Altamira, twenty-three miles north of Hermosillo, have been destroyed.

A column of Carranza troops tonight surrounded Cananea, according to General Obregon, who reported to Mexican Consul J. G. Leveiter at Naco, Sonora, from the headquarters of General Obregon and Calles at Villa Verde.

General Jose Rodriguez attempted today to escape from Cananea, but was driven back at Puerto Blanco by Colonel Cardenas posted there with approximately 1,500 cavalry, according to General Obregon.

Important skirmishes during the day resulted in twelve killed on the Villa side and two killed and three wounded of the Carranza outposts, General Obregon reported.

In one action General Calles was hit over the heart by a spent bullet and bruised.

General Obregon reported his main force occupying a strip of country from Saguera of the Del Rio and Nogales branch of the Southern Pacific railroad east and north to Naco and southeast to Cananea.

Colonel Cardenas occupied Puerto Blanco, a detachment of the Carranza Copper company, with a wagon road connecting with Imperial south of Nogales on the Southern Pacific railroad main line to Hermosillo, Colonel Amelita, with 1,200 men, holds the Carranza pumping station and water supply at Rio del Agua.

At Hermosillo General Diezguerra's cavalry defeated Villa's main army, and cut communications by destroying railroad bridges and telegraph lines, according to an alleged wireless message given out by Consul Leveiter tonight as coming from General Diezguerra.

The message said that Villa's main force, twenty-three miles north of Hermosillo.

GREGORY CHARGED WITH PROBE OF FOREIGN PLOTS

Heads of Treasury and Justice Departments Issue Formal Statement Regarding Investigation.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Washington, Nov. 19.—The policy of the department of justice and treasury department in handling investigations of foreign plots, munition factory explosions and similar matters was announced tonight in a statement authorized by Attorney General Gregory and Secretary McAdoo.

It indicates that in the future the bureau of investigation of the department of justice is to be the main reliance of the government in dealing with alleged criminal activities in this country connected with the European war.

The statement follows: "In view of the widespread statement to the effect that the secret service force of the treasury department has been put in charge of the investigation of all foreign plots, ship burnings, munition factory explosions and the like, and the determination of whether criminal statutes of the United States have been violated, the secretary of the treasury and the attorney general authorize the statement:

"That the different departments of the federal government have been instructed to furnish and are furnishing to each other all information which will assist each department in performing the duties devolving upon it."

"That there is no disagreement between the departments as to their respective spheres, and none is anticipated."

"That with the exception of crimes relating to counterfeiting and the bounty laws, the bureau of investigation of the department of justice is charged with the duty of investigating all information containing violations of the criminal statutes of the United States, including conspiracies in violation of federal criminal statutes, violations of interstate commerce statutes, and passport frauds."

"That the instructions of the secret service of the treasury are to prompt investigation of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, which will assist the latter in carrying out such investigations."

The secret service began investigating alleged plots involving American neutrality after the war began and it is well known here that it has collected a mass of information bearing on activities of many kinds. Scores of reports have been made to Secretary McAdoo and some of them are said to have gone up to President Wilson.

YOUNG AMERICAN RELEASED FROM LONDON PRISON

Graduate of Princeton, but Declared by Father to Be Mentally Unbalanced; Offered to Betray English Secrets

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
London, Nov. 19.—(4422 p. m.)—Kenneth G. Triest, the former Princeton student, held in London as a spy, has been released by the British authorities and will leave with his father for the United States tomorrow.

Triest, who is said to be 19 years old, is the son of Wolfgang G. Triest, a member of a New York contracting firm. He was arrested in London in October. Triest left Princeton last January and enlisted as a wireless operator in the British navy.

Writing by an uncle in Germany, Triest was charged, promised to deliver in Berlin valuable secrets which he claimed to have learned. It was the interception of this letter which led to his arrest and confinement in the Tower of London. Representations made to the British government by the state department at Washington resulted in the trial of the prisoner on a charge of espionage being postponed until October 19, and then indefinitely.

Triest was released, won to London with the purpose of attempting to secure the release of his son, previously having visited Washington and presenting evidence to the state department tending to prove that young Triest was mentally unbalanced.

ALL TENNESSEE EXCITED OVER
TODAY'S PRIMARY

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 19.—After one of the hardest fought campaigns in the history of the state, Tennessee democrats will hold a primary tomorrow to select a nominee for United States senator. Senator Luke Lea, of Nashville, is a candidate to succeed himself and is opposed by Representative K. V. McKelvey and former Governor Mahesh H. Patterson, both of Memphis. All three tonight were predicting success.

The nominee chosen tomorrow will be voted for in the election of November 1916.

All three of the candidates are in agreement in support of present state prohibition laws, around which the state campaign next year is expected to center, and in the absence of any other important issue, the campaign developed an exchange of more or less bitter personalities.

GOVERNOR SPRY MEANS TO CLEAN CRIMINALS OUT

Hillstrom Dies Game, After Breaking Down and Fighting With Guards Who Came to Conduct Him to Death.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 19.—Joseph Hillstrom's execution early today for the murder of J. G. Morrison and Morrison's son, January 19, 1914, was followed by Governor Spry's announcement this afternoon that he would clean the state of the lawless element that now infests it.

Every lawbreaker, every man who defies law and order, every man who is opposed to law and order—call themselves what they will—will be driven out of the state, he said. "I am going to see that the work is started at once. If the city officers and others whose duty it is do not do so, I will do it myself. I am going to see that inflammatory street speaking is stopped, and at once, let them call it by 'free speech' or any other name they wish."

Will Clean Up State.
The governor said he did not believe it would be necessary to use the state militia, but that the militia would be used to clean the state of the men who have been writing threatening letters and making incendiary speeches. It is known that a considerable amount of evidence in this connection has been collected by the state in the last few months and the governor said very emphatically tonight that he intended to adopt drastic measures to rid the condition of alarm that has existed here as a result of the agitation of the Hillstrom case.

Hillstrom Dies Game.
"Fire! Let her go!" were Hillstrom's last words. Although he was self-possessed and asserted his innocence when he faced his executioners, Hillstrom had a nervous collapse just previously, when he fled the door of his cell at the state prison with strips torn from his blankets and fought the guards, forcing with the handle of a broom he had snatched from an attendant in the corridor.

Hillstrom remained apparently in sleep until early this morning. He arose at 4 o'clock and began to shake the cell door, striking. The noise reached the outside guard, who turned in a general alarm. When the guards arrived to take him to the scene of the execution Hillstrom fought them savagely with the broom-handle, which he had broken in two, leaving a sharp point on one piece.

Deputy Warden A. G. Pre received a slight wound in the arm from Hillstrom's weapon in the fight. Hillstrom fought silently until Sheriff J. Corless, for whom he had previously manifested high regard, arrived and appealed to him.

"Joe, this is all nonsense," said Corless. "What do you mean? You promised to die like a man."

Hillstrom hesitated a moment and then yielded. "Well, I'm through," he said. "But you can't blame a man for fighting for his life."

The blanket steps he had tied to the door were then cut, he was blindfolded and led to the place of execution, supported by two guards. He talked incessantly in the few moments that elapsed between the time of his arrival and the firing of the death volley. He asked whether any of his friends were in the firing squad and kept saying he was innocent and would die like a man. His voice was clear, but low. He was quickly adjusted to the death chair and, as the attendants drew aside, Hillstrom straightened himself in the chair and said: "I'll die like a man. I never did any wrong in my life. I die fighting, not like a coward. Well, I'm going. Goodbye, everybody."

Death Instantaneous.
The word to fire was given and the report of the rifles came as instant after Hillstrom's final words, "Let her go!" He died instantly.

Hillstrom's body was claimed by Ed Rowan, secretary of the local Industrial Workers of the World, who intimated that it would be sent to Norway for burial, as requested by Hillstrom in a telegram to W. D. Daywood, yesterday.

Telegrams from O. N. Hilton of Denver, one of Hillstrom's attorneys, asserting that William Busky of Seattle had made an affidavit that he was with Hillstrom the night J. G. Morrison was murdered and that Hillstrom was innocent, were received by Governor Spry and other officers of the state and county early this morning.

The request was requested to postpone the execution until this statement had been investigated. Warden Arthur Pratt of the prison then asked Hillstrom if he knew Busky and Hillstrom answered that he did not. The sheriff was then directed to proceed with the execution.

The affidavit sought to be established for Hillstrom by Busky of Seattle is not supported by the records here. He was not with Hillstrom from 2 until 10 on the day of the murders, as Hillstrom called alone at the Morrison residence that afternoon and remained there a considerable period. Busky did not testify for Hillstrom at the preliminary hearing, as he asserts. Hillstrom did not offer any defense at the hearing and called no witnesses.

Busky, the witness at both the preliminary and the trial were local persons who are still here. No former of the name of "Hines" was ever employed at the Murray smelter and the smelting company has no record of an applicant for work by Hillstrom and Busky. Busky's name does not appear on the jail records here and if he served a term of forty-one days, as he says, it was under another name. Hillstrom said before his execution today that he did not know Busky.

Hillstrom's body was turned over to a local undertaker by the Industrial Workers of the World today.

POLICE ARE LOOKING FOR WILLIAM BUSKY
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 19.—The Seattle police are looking for William Busky, who affixed his cross to an affidavit to the effect that he was with Joseph Hillstrom from 2 to 10 o'clock on the afternoon of January 19, 1914, when the Morrison murder took place in Salt Lake City. The general belief at police headquarters is that the Industrial Workers used Busky, who appears to be familiar with Salt Lake City and its suburbs, in a desperate effort to stay the execution, and at the same time protect Hillstrom with a cross to protect him from a perjury charge. One newspaper reporter, employed by a paper that has aided in the movement to delay Hillstrom's execution, was permitted to see Busky a short time, but with this exception Busky was out of reach during the day.

Whitehead, who is an L. W. W. secretary, is said to be an old resident here. Following is the text of Busky's affidavit, as telegraphed to President Wilson and Governor Spry, by Secretary Whitehead, early today: "Seattle, Wash., Nov. 19, 1915.—I, William Busky, do hereby solemnly swear that on the 19th day of January, 1914, I was in the company of one Joseph Hillstrom continuously from the hours of 2 p. m. until 10 p. m. at Murray, Utah, and that we also received 'rustling' checks from a former named Hines at the Murray smelter."

"When Hillstrom left me at 10 p. m. on the night of January 19, he had received no bullet wounds."

(Signed) "WILLIAM BUSKY—his mark—HITSKY." Witnesses: John Lethbrun, Harry Feenberg, John Cleary, notary public.

Busky is short, smoothshaven and of dark complexion. He speaks English fluently.

Killed in "Movie" Scene.
